The Reported Murder of Consul Untrue

BULLET FIRED AT MAGELSEN MISSED ITS MARK.

ATTACK MADE WHILE RIDING.

President Will Not Recall Squadron—He Believes Safety of Subjects Demands Warships.

Washington, Aug. 29—(Bulletin)—
The Navy department was informed today that Admiral Cotton is now at Genoa coaling with the Brooklyn and San Francisco en route to Beirut.

Washington, Aug. 29—(Bulletin)—
Although the tragedy of the situation has dropped out with the correction of the statement that Vice Consul Magelsen was murdered, the fact remains that the conditions in Syria and indeed throughout all Turkey are alarming and that Americans residing there require the protection afforded by the American warships cruising in the nearest waters. It is this consideration which caused the administration to determine that the order of the operator and its correction should not change the program, and that the orders to the European squadron to proceed to Beirut should not be recalled.

The department has already received assurances, informal in their nature, from each of the powers interested in Turkish affairs, that no obstacles will be placed in the way of the United States in regard of its mode of procedure. Accordingly the way is made smooth for Admiral Cotton in any event.

Constantinople, Aug. 29—(Bulletin)— It is today reported that all the reserves of the first, second and third army corps are about to be called out in preparation for a possible war with Bulgaria.

FIRED AT CONSULATE.

Vienna, Aug. 29—A dispatch from Uskub states that a company of Turkish troops while passing through that place fired a volley at the Austrian con-sulate. No one was injured but it is feared that incident will increase the diplomatic tension between Austria and the Porte. The correspondence of Sarafoff the Macedonian leader, has been seized at Monastir. This correspondence is reported to prove that the Macedonian chief received rich subsidies from the pan-Slavist Russian committees and that the latter supplied him with arms and dynamite, sent from Odessa by way of Austria and Roumania.

OUTBREAK PREDICTED.

Constantinople, Aug. 29—The war office has received authentic information to the effect that a revolutionary outbreak will occur at three points in Macedonia next week. Precautions have been taken to quell the outbreak should it occur.

LEW WALLACE'S VIEW.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 29—“When we take our hands off the 10,000,000 Filipinos we are holding down, then it will be good time for us to lecture the Turks.”
General Lew Wallace, former U. S. minister to Constantinople, made this statement in a very positive manner Friday afternoon while in Indianapolis.
It speaks volumes as to the distinguished author's ideas on the Phillipine question.

General Wallace is a personal friend of the Sultan of Turkey, with whom he became acquainted when he was minister to Constantinople.

Washington, Aug. 29—A decidedly sensational turn in the case of the United States Vice Consul, Mr. William C. Magelssen, at Beirut, Syria, who was reported to have been assassinated last Sunday, developed last night, when it became known that the report was incorrect and that although Mr. Magelssen had been shot at, he had not even been injured.

This information came to the state department last night in a dispatch from United States Minister Leishman, at Constantinople, who said the mistake in making the original announcement was due to an error in the transmission of the cipher dispatch from Consul Ravndal, at Beirut, in reporting the incident to the minister.

The dispatch from Mr. Leishman followed closely on a press bulletin on the same subject, which had been shown to the prominent officials of the government.

The dispatch from the minister was communicated to the President at Oyster Bay. Its contents were extremely gratifying to the officials of the government here, as it relieved the situation of its extreme tension and leaves the way open for an amicable and peaceable adjustment of the incident. Whether or not orders will be given calling off the proposed cruise of the European squadron to Turkish waters, is a matter for future determination.

Acting Secretary Loomis declined to make public the text of Minister Leishman's dispatch but gave a summary of its contents.

As stated in the press dispatches, it shows that Mr. Magelssen had been shot at by some person at the time unknown to the officials, but that he had not been hit. The local Turkish officials were prompt to express their regret at the occurrence and were exerting themselves to apprehend the assassin, but thus far had been unsuccessful. The minister's dispatch also said that Consul Ravndal had reported to him that some of the foreign consuls located at Beirut had reported to their governments that the situation at that place had become exceedingly unsafe, that this condition of affairs had existed for some time and that something ought to be done to relieve the tension.
The opinion was expressed that the attempted assassination of Magelssen would probably bring matters to a focus, the attention of the Turkish government being drawn to the matter in this forcible way, and some effort thus be made to avoid further trouble.

The latest development in the Turkish situation was discussed in official circles where the view is held that the denial of the report of the killing of Mr. Magelssen relieves the situation of its immediate awkward and embarrassing feature, but will not prevent our naval vessels continuing to the east.
Minister Leishman, in one of his dispatches to the department, suggested that conditions were such that it might be well to have some American naval demonstration in those waters. Reports also have come to the government from the missionary interests of the threatened destruction of their property, at Harpoot, and because of this Admiral Cotton, it is expected, will be allowed to proceed with one or more of his vessels to Beirut.

Acting Secretary Darling received a telegram from the admiral dated Vil-lafranche, saying that he had left that place with the cruisers Brooklyn and San Francisco for Genoa on the way to Beirut.

WHERE THE TURKS
SHOT AT MAGELSEN.

Beirut, where Vice Consul Magelssen was shot at by subjects of the “sick man of Europe” is situated on the west coast of Asia Minor, on the Mediterranean sea, about 150 miles from the island of Cyprus, 100 miles north of Mt. Carmel and about 60 miles east of Damascus, in what is known as Turkey in Asia. Its population is estimated at 200,000.

COLLISION

On the Erie Railroad This Morning Results in One Death and Fourteen Injuries.

Turner, N. Y., Aug. 29—One man was killed and fourteen persons were injured in a crash on the Erie railroad near Newburg Junction at 5:20 this morning. The first section of train No. 17 which is the milk train with a passenger coach and combination car, was run into by the second section of the train, telegraphing the coach and combination car. Nearly every person in the wrecked cars was hurt and every doctor that could be secured was hurried to the scene. The man killed has not yet been identified.

PROF. SMITH'S SUICIDE.

Columbus, O., Aug. 29—Prof. Asa T.
Smith, an educator, whose home is in Corning, committed suicide Friday in a sanitarium. He had been a sufferer from nervous troubles. His mode of self-murder was hanging.

HARGIS
Is to Quit Feud District

And Spend Rest of Days Near Lexington

CAPT. EWEN WILL RETURN TO JACKSON, KY.

CHIEF WITNESS AGAINST JETT

Is Hopeful of Resuming Business in Jackson—Judge to Buy a Blue Grass Farm.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 29—Unable longer to resist the pleadings of wife and daughters, County Judge James Hargis, of Breathitt county, has decided to dispose of his immense business interests in that locality, convert his holdings into cash and leave Jackson forever.

Ever since his name, it is alleged, has been accorded such prominent connection with the recent feudal troubles, the members of his family have regretted the notoriety it brought and they have been continually urging him to move away, and against them he endeavored to hold out. Their continual pressure has induced him to yield, and with this object in view he set about to find a purchaser for his property and business interests. It is stated here on good authority that the difference between $83,000 and $100,000 is what now stands in the way of an immediate sale.

Wednesday last Judge Hargis in company with Attorney O. H. Pollard, of Jackson, and Carl Day, a member of the firm of Day Bros., also of Jackson, arrived in this city and the next day proceeded to Louisville and it is now said that their particular mission was to close up the final arrangements. If possible, for a deal to settle the Hargis affairs. The latter, it is said, had offered Day Bros. to transfer all his business interests in Breathitt county and vicinity for $100,000, but after some figuring on its value Day Bros. offered to give $83,000 and assume the business.
As the Days are related to Judge Hargis it is believed that this difference will soon be overcome and the deal made.

These facts were made known when Captain B. J. Ewen suddenly broke off all negotiations with local persons relative to the purchase of a home here, which he had intended to buy, and suggested that he might return to Jackson and live there again in the event that the Hargis deal with the Days went through. Ewen is no longer seeking employment in this city or elsewhere, nor is he endeavoring to get a permanent location.

Close personal friends of Judge Hargis in this city state that Judge Hargis had been contemplating such a step, and that in the event of success Hargis will probably purchase a small Blue Grass farm in the vicinity of Lexington, quit politics and business altogether, and live comfortably on his means for the remainder of his life.

Judge Hargis has long been estimated the wealthiest man in Breathitt county, and his business and property holdings, it is said, will aggregate $200-000. He has lived in the neighborhood all his life, and his family have grown up there. Twenty-two years ago he started in business for himself, and by pluck, courage in speculation and big business undertakings he has succeeded.

TO TRY JETT.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 29—Judge J. J.
Osborne and Commonwealth Attorney J. Stanley Webster, of the Harrison Circuit court, who have been attending the trial of Caleb Powers in Georgetown, passed through here on the way to their home in Cynthia. Judge Osborne stated that he would immediately appoint a special bailiff to summon a jury for the trial of Cutris Jett upon the indictment charging him with the murder of James Cockrill.

HER BABY

“Leased” for Twenty Years by Mrs.
Hattie Hummell of Indiana.

Anderson, Ind., Aug. 29—To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hunt, in North Andover, Mrs. Hattie Hummell gave her nine-month-old boy, signing it away by contract for 20 years to Hunt, but it retains its name and is not to be adopted. The contract was of the same form as a lease. Mrs. Hummell's first husband is dead, her second deserted her, and she stated she was not able to rear her child. The contract she signed was attested by a Notary Public and is the first on record here.

NO RACE
Storm Off Coast Is Too
Severe for Yachts
Today.

Highlands, Aug. 29—There will be no race for America cup today between Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock III. and the American sloop Reliance, because of the heavy storm which has been raging off the coast for two days.
The two racers lay to with their mooring buoys this morning with second anchors cast from the sterns to keep the yachts from dragging in the easterly gale. No attempt was made to make sail and the crews waited for the race to be called off officially. All yesterday and last night the storm raged on the Jersey shore. The wind blew a gale all night and at midnight the wind registered 37 miles. This morning the spinning cups on the wind gauge showed 32 miles.

Midsummer has rarely witnessed such a severe storm as the one which is blowing over the eastern coast today. Provisionally no ships have been blown ashore, although the life saving service is keeping sharp vigil.

WILL RACE MONDAY.

New York Aug. 29—The regatta committee of the New York yacht club announced today that Reliance and Shamrock will race Monday and every day thereafter until the series for the American cup has been concluded.

FAILURE OF A COFFEE FIRM FOR A HALF MILLION.

New York Concern Formerly Located at Canton, Ohio—War on Prices is the Cause.

New York, Aug. 29—(Bulletin)— Dannemiller & Company, the large Brooklyn coffee firm, have failed for $500,000. The members of the firm live in Canton, Ohio, and it is said that several Canton banks were among the creditors. Albert Dannemiller, the manager, declines to say anything about the failure.

CAUSE OF FAILURE.

Canton, O., Aug. 29—The facts in connection with the failure of Danne-miller & company, importers and roasters of coffee whose plant was removed from Canton to Brooklyn three years ago, according to a statement of a member of the company and attorneys for the company here, are:

The failure is due to action of big coffee combines in their war on prices.
Dannemiller and company were caught in the slump of prices and lost heavily.

This Dannemiller grocery company, of this city, with a paid in capital of $250,000, is not involved but has all accounts paid except $12,000 not yet due.

A report that Canton banks have lost heavily is denied by the Dannemillers and by the presidents of various Canton banks.

It is generally understood here that Dannemiller and Company had an investment of over a million in their Brooklyn plant.

IN PRISON

DELEGATE PARKS WILL DRAW $48 PER WEEK.

Union Will Continue His Salary While He is in Sing Sing—Authorities Condemned.

New York, Aug. 29—At last night's meeting of the house smith and bridge-men's union, it was decided to pay Samuel J. Parks, the walking delegate of the union, his regular salary of $18 a week during the time he is in Sing Sing prison. The union also gave him a vote of thanks and condemned the authorities for the “persecution of Parks.”

At the meeting of United Board of Building Trades, with which the housesmiths are identified the following was adopted:

Resolved, That Walking Delegate Samuel J. Parks be as grand marshal of the Labor Day parade. And in the event of it being impossible for Delegate Parks to be with us, that we recommend that a large band be led at the right of the line, with Delegate Parks sash and uniform.

Women Burglars

Kokomo, Ind., Aug. 29—A band of women burglars raided eight residences here Thursday and Friday nights getting $500 in cash and jewels.
The women carried rugs, on which they walked to muffle their footsteps.
At one house a wedding suit and $120 belonging to a bridegroom, were taken, delaying the wedding ceremony.
The burglars escaped. The only clue is a rug and parasol left at the last house visited.

Going 40 Miles
An Hour

Carrying Cleveland and St. Louis Teams

WRECKED THIS MORNING AT NA-POLEON, OHIO.

VERY FEW ON THE TRAIN HURT

The Engineer's Prompt Work Saved the Life of More Than One Baseball Player.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 29—The Cleveland and St. Louis American League clubs had a miraculous escape from almost total annihilation early this morning at Napoleon, O. A special train of two sleepers and a baggage car left Toledo over the Wabash en route for St. Louis. The first sleeper contained the Cleveland club, while the St. Louis club members were in the rear car. The accident occurred at the crossing just before the train would have entered Napoleon. Engineer Baker evidently became confused and thought he saw a white light, indicating that he had the right of way and pulled his train into the derail, while running at the rate of 40 miles an hour.

As soon as he felt the forward trucks of the engine strike the ties he slapped on the emergency brake and by doing so probably saved the life of more than one ball player. He succeeded in reducing the leadway of the train so that when the cars went into the ditch the sides were not crushed in. The Cleveland sleeper turned completely over and the boys on the upper side were thrown over on top of those who occupied berths on the opposite side of the car. Luckily the car did not take fire and at the end of 20 minutes every member of the Cleveland club had succeeded in climbing through the windows on the upper side of the car with almost all of their baggage. Vice President C. W. Somers of the Cleveland club, was in the rear car talking to Manager McAleer of the St. Louis club at the time the accident occurred and escaped with nothing worse than a good shaking up, as that car did not turn over completely over as did the Cleveland sleeper. It was an anxious moment for Mr. Somers, however, when he reached the ground and stepped forward to see what happened.

There lay the car, containing the Cleveland ball players, on its side with the lights all out, enveloped in steam from the engine, and not a sign of life anywhere. Most of the Napoleons were asleep at the time the car turned over, and it took every one about five minutes to realize in the darkness that pervaded the car just where they were and what had happened. When they grasped the situation every one was cool and they began asking one another if they were all right, until every man was accounted for, before any attempt was made to communicate with the outside world. Another engine and one sleeper were sent to the scene of the wreck from Toledo and both clubs were compelled to ride to Fort Wayne in this one car. At this point it was found impossible to get another sleeper, so a chair car was attached. The accident will make it impossible for the two clubs to reach St. Louis in time to play a double header today, but they hope to play one game.

LIST OF INJURED.

Penn. Ind., Aug. 29—The injured in the Wabash wreck at Napoleon, O., this morning are:

W. Sudhoff, pitcher, St. Louis, right wrist cut and sprained; Sidney Mercer, secretary of the St. Louis team, rib fractured; Emmett Haddock, center fielder, St. Louis, face cut and leg bruised; Napoleon Lajoie, second baseman, Cleveland, face cut and knee sprained. Several others were slightly injured.

DIVORCED

From a Wife Who Chewed Tobacco and Who Had Been Married Seven Times.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 29—In the District court at Fremont, Neb., Judge Grimison granted General S. Lovelady, a divorce on the ground of cruelty, and at the same time allowed the defendant enough alimony to pay the expense she had incurred in fighting the case.

A few weeks before the decree of divorce was granted Mrs. Lovelady was arraigned on the charge of threatening to poison her husband and his children.

It came to light at the trial of the divorce case that Mrs. Lovelady is the divorced wife of three men, who are now living, and that she had been married seven times. The testimony did not show whether or not she had been divorced from any of her dead husbands. She declared she did not remember, and General Lovelady said he never knew.

WOMEN ARE VOTING.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 29—For the first time in the history of Connecticut, women have an opportunity to vote today. The first annual election of the borough of Woodmont, the shore resort where U. S. Senator Hawley spends his summers, occurs today and according to the new charter, the women property holders will have the suffrage.

THREE FATALLY HURT.

Shelbyville, Ind., Aug. 29—A freight wreck occurred on the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis railway at Flat Rock this morning. Ed. Ducker, conductor, and Bert Greenlee, a brakeman, who were in the caboose, of the first train, were horribly scalded. Roy Smith, fireman on the second train, jumped on a cattle guard and was badly injured. It is thought that all the men are injured fatally.

TREASURER

REFUSED TO TURN FUNDS OVER TO CERTAIN BANK,

And a Law Suit Follows at Lancaster—Treasurer Says the Ordinance Passed Isn't Legal.

Lancaster, O., Aug. 29—A suit in mandamus will be filed against City Treasurer Bowers to compel him to transfer the city funds to the Hocking Valley National Bank, the recently selected depository. The transfer was to have been made yesterday, but the Treasurer refused to turn over the funds. Since the new city officials took office the funds have been divided between two local banks the officials of which were sureties on the Treasurer's bond. The funds are all in the Lancaster bank at present. The Treasurer claims that the ordinance under which the Hocking Valley bank was designated as depository is not legal, as it includes school funds amounting to about $100,000. The repository bid 2.55 per cent interest on deposits, and the city is losing this interest because the funds have not been transferred.

COLUMBUS

SENDS THREE BIG TRAIN LOADS TO IDLEWILDE.

Pan Handle Shopmen and Their Families to the Number of 2513 in Newark Saturday.

The excursion from Columbus to Idlewild Park, on the occasion of the picnic of the Panhandle shops employee, arrived in Newark Saturday morning on three sections each train being crowded. The first section came in at 9:30, the second at 10 and the third at 10:20.

Many of the excursionists came down to the depot and spent a part of the day, in the city going to the park on the electric cars. A program of sports was inaugurated and carried out, after which the greater part of the crowd went to the Urbana-Idlewild ball game.

The program of sports in connection with the Panhandle employees picnic began in the morning with a game of baseball between the employees of the tin shop and boiler shop, which was won by the former 5 to 3. The winners made a great rally in the ninth and batted in four runs which won the game.

The next event was a tug of war between teams representing the Panhandle shops at Dennison and Columbus which the latter won by an inch and three-eighths.

An adjournment was taken for dinner after which the other sports came off on the race track, while the Deer-foot band of Columbus furnished music for dancing in the pavilion.

The three special trains carried 2513 people as follows, first section 1123, second 799 third 590.

The picnic is given by the Panhandle Athletic association of Columbus, of which C. D. Young is president and E.
F. Reagh is secretary.

Blew Bank Safe.

The 1000 Mr. Aug. 29—Burlington only this morning wrecked the vault in the Brewer Savings bank in Brewer, just across the river from this city, and then fled. They were met by two police and a spirited pistol duel followed. The robbers escaped. They secured a small amount of loot.

GUILTY

Is Powers Says
the Jury

Punishment This Time
Is Death

FOR THIRD TIME POWERS HAS BEEN CONVICTED.

JURORS REPORTED THIS NOON.

Powers Made an Eloquent Appeal in His Own Behalf at the Close of the Trial.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 29—Caleb Powers has for the third time been found guilty of conspiracy in the assassination of Governor Wm. Goebel and his punishment has been fixed at death. The report of the jury was made to the court at 11:20 o'clock this noon, after four hours and twenty minutes' consideration of the case this morning.

After a powerful and eloquent argument of five hours by R. B. Franklin, the Powers case was given to the jury at 9:35 o'clock last night, but Judge Robbins told the jurors that he knew they were weary and he would give them but one hour to consider the case. If they could not agree in that time they were to go to bed and sleep till this morning. The jury did not agree on its verdict last night, but began consideration of the celebrated case this morning, and found Powers guilty of first degree murder.

Caleb Powers began the second section of his speech yesterday and showed no ill effects from his effort of Thursday. He devoted much time to his visit to Louisville on the morning of January 30, and said if it could be proved that he did not make that trip in good faith to confer about bringing more men to Frankfort he was willing to take a verdict of guilty; that he was willing to stand or fall by that trip; if he made it in good faith he was innocent, and if he made it as a subterfuge then he was guilty of conspiring to have Goebel killed.

He said Fulton testified that Yontsey told him early in January that he (Yontsey) had a key to Powers' office and if that testimony could be relied on then there was no secret as to how Yontsey got into the office to fire the shot or have Howard do it.

At one time in his speech he held up his hands and said: “I hope God may strike me dead this minute if I ever had anything to do with, or any knowledge of, a conspiracy to kill Senator Goebel.”

Passengers on the Lucania Kept in Touch With News of the Day by Wireless Messages.

New York, Aug. 29—The steamer Lucania, which arrived after a very fast passage, being equipped with special apparatus for receiving wireless messages from long distances, was enabled to keep her passengers, among whom was Sig. Marconi, in touch with the news of the day during the entire voyage.

After leaving Liverpool last Saturday news was received from Seaforth, a station at the mouth of the River Mersey. On Sunday after leaving Queenstown, messages were received from Crookhaven on the Irish coast, until the vessel was 115 miles away.
The American liner Philadelphia bound to New York, was in communication on Monday. From Table Head, Cape Breton, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday were received bulletins, among which were the results of the first and second cup races at Sandy Hook, and a report of a derelict in the track of trans-Atlantic steamers in the longitude through which the Lucania would pass in a short time. Nantucket lightship sent news on Friday morning and Sagaponack, L. I., gave the Lucania the latest news in the afternoon.

These bulletins were posted on board the ship, and when the vessel was nearing Sandy Hook they were published in as small four-page newspaper for distribution among the passengers.

THE MAN WHO HOPES TO WREST AWAY HANNA'S TOGA.

Cleveland, Aug. 29.—John H. Clarke, the man who was endorsed by the Ohio Democrats for United States Senator and who hopes to defeat Mark Hanna, is a man of striking personality. Faultless dressed, shrewd, polite, polished, smooth faced, with white hair, but youthful looking, nevertheless, the candidate is 45 years of age.

A newspaper man would describe Clarke as a "good scout, but a hard subject to interview." He was admitted to the bar at 21. He is as careful before the interviewer as he would be on the witness stand. The coming campaign may loosen his tongue, as it does the tongues of all statesmen and politicians, but in this, his first interview after the adjournment of the convention which nominated him United States Senator, he volunteered little information. Being a good lawyer Clarke could, whenever he felt so disposed, evade any question in the most up-to-date, polite and polished manner.

Such is the man who would wrest the laurel wreath and toga from Uncle Mark.

"What sort of a campaign do you expect to make against Hanna?" the reporter asked.

"I intend to make my campaign wholly against Hanna's record on public measures, such as the ship subsidy bill, forcing imperialism on the country and particularly his management of state politics and his share of forcing a bad system of municipal government on the state. And by the way," he added, with a smile, showing a perfect row of teeth, crossing his legs and rocking himself vigorously, "Mr. Hanna and I were born in the same village of New Lisbon, now Lisbon, and at the time that town celebrated its centennial anniversary I spoke one day and Mr. Hanna the next. I am under the impression that Hanna lived in Lisbon until he was 21, and I lived there until I was 22, so you see about the time Hanna left Lisbon I was born. From Lisbon I moved to Youngstown, where I practiced law 15 years, and six years ago I came to Cleveland."

Clarke is a bachelor and occupies a suite in the University club, of which he is president. Libraries are his special hobby. He is a member of the public library board of the Chamber of Commerce. For 10 years he was the president of the Youngstown public library. He graduated from the Western Reserve university when that institution was located at Hudson. He is part owner of the Youngstown Vindicator.

NOTED ARMLESS HORSEMAN

How W. B. Denny Handled Spirited Animals Despite Loss of Arms.

The late W. B. Denny, known far and wide as the "Armless Horseman," long a resident of Washington, lost his arms by the premature discharge of a salute over the body of General George H. Thomas, says the New York Times. For many years he had a position in the war department, but a year ago he resigned to give his whole time to his horses. He was a cavalryman during the war and always had a great fondness for horses. He had owned and driven some of the finest singles and teams seen in Washington.

His courage and skill with mettlesome, highly bred animals was remarkable. He was a familiar figure on the streets of the capital and often drove and won on the race tracks of the District and adjoining states. His driving was marvelous in that he seemed to accomplish his conquest of the worst horse by talking to him and so gaining his confidence. When he undertook to drive a strange and spirited team or to break a young horse he first saw that every strap and buckle was at its proper place; then he placed one rein over his right shoulder and the other beneath his left arm, the two reins being made fast with a strong buckle turned under so that it was impossible to slip or come loose. With the stub of his arms he was able to guide the animals. The weight of his body against the reins brought the horses to a slow up if they got fast and fretful. Twisting his shoulders and body from side to side, sawing the bits in the mouths until the horses were willing to quiet down and trot gently along, he was able to manage them.

Last spring some of the owners of fast steppers had a number of races at Brightwood Driving park. Mr. Denny's late home, and he had a team entered in a trotting race. The young man who was to drive showed in the line up that Mr. Denny's team had a bad chance to win. Mr. Denny became irritated at the stupid horsemanship and, ordering the young fellow out of the sulky, jumped in, adjusted the reins in a twinkling and succeeded in getting a good position, winning the race easily. Many of the best horsemen in the District and a number from elsewhere were present, and all declared that they had never witnessed such a fine exhibition on any track.

DON'T DELAY.

It is "Putting Off" Till Some Other Day That Causes so Many Sudden Deaths.

If its for the kidneys, liver, bladder or blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia, chronic constipation, or the weaknesses peculiar to women, the most efficient medicine known to the medical profession is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and a very simple way to find out if you need it, is to put some urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment or a milky, cloudy appearance, if it isropy or stringy, pale or discolored, you do not need a physician to tell you that your kidneys and bladder are badly affected.

The Rev. Theodore Hunter, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Greensburg, Ky., writes us the following:

"It gives me much pleasure to state that I have received great benefit from the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Some time ago I had a severe attack of kidney trouble, but a few bottles of 'Favorite Remedy' have entirely removed the malady."

"Favorite Remedy" speedily cures such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, burning scalding pain in passing water, the staining of linen by your urine.

DIXEY AND WHISTLER.

The Actor Recalls Incidents in Connection With His "Sitting."

When Henry E. Dixey was in London playing "Adonis" he sat for James McNeill Whistler, the American artist who died a few days ago, and the two men became friends. Dixey's recollections of the eccentric painter are interesting at this time, says the Chicago Inter Ocean.

"He sent me word one day," said the actor recently, "that he would like to come to my dressing room and watch me make up my face for the impersonation I was giving of Henry Irving. He came and stood behind me, watching the process of the transformation in the mirror. He acted like a delighted child all through the operation. With the addition of every new line and effect he would utter an exclamation of pleasure and then confront me and examine more closely the counterfeited countenance. When the task was completed he pronounced the resemblance 'marvelous,' even at close range."

"He invited me to luncheon the next day and asked me to permit him to paint me in my white and blue costume. I sent for it, and he stood me on a pink mat and before a lavender background. Then he discarded the monocle, put on a pair of big spectacles, and, really, the man underwent a complete change of manner the moment he began to mix his colors. I never saw inspiration so clearly depicted on a face in my life. He talked half to himself as he worked."

"Oh, we'll do something fine this time," he would say. "Wait, wait, wait; hold that pose, please. Oh, this will be all right—you'll see." When I thought he had finished my figure at least I looked at the canvas and found he had made nothing but the outlines. When I expressed my surprise he explained: "Ah, my boy, I don't work as many others do. I commence at the background and work out to my subject."

"After an hour's time his cook summoned him to dinner, but he still painted on. To my surprise the cook, a healthy, middle aged woman, began lecturing him in French and actually took the brush out of his hand and compelled him to stop. The artist endured this just as a child might and allowed his dominating color to lead us to the dining room."

"I sat for him several more times, but I had to leave England before the picture was finished. I received letters from him telling me of the progress he was making, but when I last saw him, two years ago in London, I was much disappointed to learn that the portrait was in Paris."

"I have met a great many famous men," continued Mr. Dixey, "but I can recall none so striking in character as my departed friend Whistler."

LODGE NEWS

Odd Fellows.

The growth of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows since its first organization in America in 1819, has been steady and substantial. Probably no other civic order ever instituted among men has done so much to relieve suffering and distress within the past 84 years as this fraternal organization. Since 1830 the Order has expended for relief $92,665,214.47. The official report shows that in the year 1901 the Order has expended $328,315.47 1-3 per month. It has expended $1,913.84 per day; it has expended $455.58 2-3 per hour; it has expended $7.59 4-5 per minute.

At the meeting of Licking Lodge Daughters of Rebekah, held on Thursday night, there was a good attendance and considerable business of importance was transacted. About a dozen petitions for membership were received and acted on.

No business other than routine was transacted in the several lodges of Odd Fellows this week.

Grand lodges are now established in every State and Territory of the United States, and there are Lodges instituted in nearly every part of the world. Since the organization of Odd Fellowship—84 years ago—there have been initiated into its membership 2,000,000 members in America, and over $90,000,000 expended for relief for the sick, burial of the dead and education for its orphans.

EVERY SHIP IN AMERICAN NAVY WILL HAVE A BABY.

UNIQUE PLAN TO GIVE MEN A CHANCE TO STUDY THE BOATS ON WHICH THEY FIGHT—SCHEME IS BORROWED FROM THE GERMANS.

MONTEREY "BABY."

Washington, Aug. 29.—Commander W. H. Beecher, commanding the U. S. S. Monterey, has forwarded to the navy department photographs of skeleton models of the Monterey, which are known as the "Monterey Baby", and which were made under his supervision at Hong Kong by Chinese carpenters. It took three months to make them and cost about $110.

The "baby" was made from the exact plan of the ship to scale in all particulars one-quarter of an inch to the foot, so that the skeleton is just one-fourth of the size of the ship. It is about five feet long, 15 inches beam and four inches draft.

Commander Beecher thinks that because of the intricate subdivisions and the complicated character of a modern battleship the plans should be readily understood by the enlisted men on board. In the German navy this need is supplied by the skeleton models, each ship carrying one. Commander Beecher got his idea from this practice in the German navy. The Monterey model shows the interior economy of the ship and teaches the officers and crew how to handle the machine in which they are to fight. It shows every frame, every watertight compartment and subdivision of the double bottom, the holds, magazines, coal bunkers, fire rooms and rollers, sea valves—in fact, every detail of the ship which it is necessary to know.

It is the intention of the department to adopt Commander Beecher's suggestion and to prepare models of every ship in the navy.

The Campaign and the Issues.

The coming Ohio campaign promises much more activity than any that has occurred in many years on state and local issues. Tom L. Johnson, the Democratic candidate for governor, has announced his purpose to go before the people with an ardent appeal for the principles for which he stands and is going to make a special effort to secure the election of a general assembly which will carry out the demands of the platform and will relegate Senator M. A. Hanna to private life. In his efforts he will be assisted by the candidate for senator, Hon. John H. Clarke, of Cleveland, one of the greatest orators in the state. Mr. Johnson's chief lieutenants are young, active, earnest and brainy men and every one of them will be busy from now until election day. It would be risky to predict the election of the entire ticket, in a state so strongly republican as Ohio, but it is possible, with hard work and unflinching action for the Democracy to elect a part of the state ticket and a Democratic general assembly.

And this is worth striving for. Ohio has lived under Republican rule for a long time. Its government has not been satisfactory to the great mass of the people. The laws have been made and enforced chiefly in the interest of the great corporations and the people are tired of it. Many Republicans are tired of being ruled by one man who has shown no consideration for the rank and file. They are ready to vote with the Democrats for a change, and will do so if the Democrats themselves stand together and make the proper effort to elect their ticket.

BY LIGHTNING

Ohio Man Was Struck While Praying, But Was Not Killed—Fatal Case in Kentucky.

East Liverpool, O., Aug. 29.—George Buchheit, an aged man, was struck by lightning yesterday afternoon, and although seriously shocked soon recovered. He was engaged in earnest prayer at the time, having a promission of impending danger, and having always since his boyhood followed the injunction of his mother to pray during a thunder storm. Although he was knocked over and lay senseless for 10 minutes, he says the prayer saved him. Three children of J. Smurthwaite, Buchheit's neighbor, who were hiding in a closet at their home, terrified at the fierce lightning, were hurled from their hiding place by the same bolt of electricity and somewhat injured. Both houses were considerably damaged, and every dish in Smurthwaite's china closet was broken.

ONE WAS KILLED.
Hazard, Ky., Aug. 29.—During a thunderstorm here last evening a bolt of lightning hit the Perry county court house and set fire to the building. The lightning killed John J. Baker, a citizen of this county, who was standing in the doorway waiting for the storm to abate. Six other men in the court house were stunned by the blow and remained unconscious for half an hour. All are expected to recover, but the condition of two is very serious.

In the excitement caused by the one fatality and the injury of the other men, the fire in the court house building made great headway, despite the fact that rain was falling in torrents.

The court house is nearly completely ruined and will have to be rebuilt.
If during the heated term, you do not bake at home, remember that Charles Hoffer, "Artisan Baker," makes Clover Leaf bread. Like home made bread. 8-17-03

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 29.—The Kaw river continues to rise slowly but probably will begin falling tonight. No further damage has been done here.

STATE ISSUES

Will be Fought Out by Johnson in The Campaign.

Bryan, Johnson, Clarke and Other Celebrated Speakers Will be on The Stump—Vigorous Battle To Elect a Democratic Legislature.

Columbus, Aug. 29.—The chief object of the Republican press of the state during the next few weeks, will be to spread false reports about alleged Democratic discord. An organized effort in this direction was apparent on the very day of the late state convention. Since then it has been taken up by the Republican organization and is now fostered by Chairman Dick and Secretary Malloy. It is understood that paid Republican emissaries will go about the state, following up the reports of an alleged Democratic revolt published by Republican newspapers and attempting to spread their effect among Democrats. This is something new in the methods of either party in this state. Democrats who will be thus approached ought to know whom they are talking to before unbosoming themselves.

The truth is that there has been absolutely no secession from Democratic ranks following the convention. That gathering, it must be admitted, was as spirited as any in the history of the party and the feeling it generated was often intense. It is the experience of the Ohio Democracy, however, that conventions productive of the scenes enacted in Columbus recently are, as a rule, such as precede a victorious campaign. The Democratic cause in this state has never thrived on lethargy and indifference. The most spirited conventions have produced the largest vote—for illustration, the convention in which James E. Campbell was nominated by only one-half of one vote amid scenes very similar to those which characterized the late convention.

There are no evidences of disapprobation on the part of the Democratic press and there is no doubt that the organs of the party will loyally support the ticket. There is every reason to predict that the party in the approaching campaign will be united and that it will receive very material support from thousands of Republicans. The Republican conspiracy to create and disseminate Democratic discontent will not succeed.

The Democratic campaign has in reality opened in advance of the organization to prepare for it. With customary enthusiasm Mayor Johnson started out on his vote-getting travels without wasting a moment and only a few hours following the adjournment of the convention found him pound and just taxation. It is intimated that Hon. John H. Clarke, the nominee for senator, will conduct on his part a campaign of similar spirit. State organization, however, will be effected within a few days, the literary bureau will be in operation and the executive committee will be prepared to furnish speakers on request of the various counties. The burden of the oratory this year will fall upon Mr. Bryan, who has accepted the convention's invitation to come into the state, Mayor Johnson and Mr. Clarke. It is expected that the new state headquarters in this city will be in active operation within the next few days.

There is no doubt that the Democratic campaign, in accordance with Mayor Johnson's wishes will be confined to state issues. Mr. Bryan will probably be the only speaker from outside the state who will take part in the campaign. Mr. Johnson said while in this city attending the convention: "The Republicans intend to flood the state with outside speakers and fight the campaign along national issues. We shall conduct our campaign along local lines. We propose to contain the election of a legislature, whether Democratic or Republican, pledged to stand for home rule and just taxation. I would rather aid in the election of a Republican member of the general assembly pledged to those ideas than a Democrat who could not be relied upon to support them. Nevertheless, I have every confidence that Senator Hanna can be defeated by the election of a Democratic legislature that will be faithful to the issues as expounded in this campaign."

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system, or despondency invariably precede suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nerve will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great Stomach, Liver and Kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Frank D. Hall, druggist.

CARTOONIST'S HINTS CONCERNING THAT SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM.

IN THE PEN

THIS CONVICT SOLD WHISKEY TO THE PRISONERS.

Operated a "Speak Easy" Behind the Walls—Thievery Going on in the Prison.

Columbus, O., Aug. 29.—That locking a man up does not prevent him from committing a crime was shown at the session of that queer court of retributive justice which Warden Hershey, of the Ohio Penitentiary, holds every morning. Arranged before him was William Connors, a convict clerk in the bolt works. He was charged with running of a "speak-easy" saloon within the penitentiary.

It was shown that convicts who wanted whiskey had only to place 75 cents in a certain box at night and in the morning they would find a half pint of "booze" awaiting them. Connors was "hiked out" of his clerkship and put in stripes before being degraded to the lowest convict level.

Word was also sent to the United States internal revenue officers, so that Connors will be doubly punished. The inside police found a bottle of whiskey on a burglar named R. B. Adams, from Cleveland, who was also a clerk in the shops. He was charged with being a pedler of the stuff by the drink. His sentence was 15 days off his good time, stripes and hard work.

A relative, who lives outside the prison in this city and is very wealthy offered to pay for a United States license and the fine attached to save Adams from punishment at the hands of the Federal officials, but the tender was refused. It is evident from this that the practice of selling and drinking whiskey in the prison has been prevalent and the new Warden is determined to break up the practice.

Another queer development was the discovery that thievery was being carried on systematically by certain cooped-up crooks. William Bradt, of Lucas county, was found to have stolen 800 pounds of brass. He is the prison plumber and in that way got access to the stuff.

William Keyes, who is serving 15 years for manslaughter from Lawrence county, was proved to have conveyed the metal outside the walls and disposed of it to junk dealers. Keyes is a trusty and was employed as the driver of the prison wagon. Both were reduced to the hated third grad.

IN A DREAM
Scanlon Saw His Son Killed and Soon Received News of His Death—Will Investigate.
Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 29.—Pursued by horrible dreams, in which he had seen his son murdered in the railroad yards of a big city, J. T. Scanlon, of Ft. Dodge, has become convinced that his son was murdered at Detroit a fortnight ago. Imbued with this idea he has determined to go to Detroit and investigate his son's mysterious death. Mr. Scanlon waked up from a fearful nightmare, in which the murder of his boy by two ugly visaged men was pictured to him, only to be called down stairs to receive a telegram, stating that the boy had been killed by the cars while riding between Detroit and Durand, Mich.

Mrs. Scanlon says that she heard peculiar rappings on the door that afternoon, and the moans of her son sounded in her ears. Once in a dream she saw him run from a barn with cuts on his body. Two men were following him and shouting for his life. This she says came to her before she knew her son was killed.

This Matter of Smoke.

We are sure that our view of the cigar business is unusual. Most druggists and all cigar dealers sell cigars to make money. We sell them to make friends—and money too in the long run. We want to get smokers into the store and let them judge what kind of a business we conduct by the kind of cigar they get. In cigars as in drugs we get the best that money can buy.

ALASKAN TOWN THE MOST UNIQUE ON CONTINENT.

INDIANS HAVE ESTABLISHED AN ARCADIAN VILLAGE UNDER THE GUIDANCE OF A WISE WHITE MAN.
SAVAGES TO CIVILIZATION.

Photograph by Staff Photographers of the Newspaper Enterprise Association.

Special Advocate Correspondence by WILL H. BRILL, Newspaper Enterprise Association's Commissioner with the U. S. Senate Committee in Alaska.

Metlakatla, Annette Island, Alaska, July 7.—Here is the most peculiar town on the American continent and one that shows what patience and good sense will do for a savage race. Here 600 or 700 Indians have established a village and here they live alone and prosper. There is but one white man among them, but he is the moving spirit of the whole—Wm. Duncan.

There is no prettier or neater village on the Alaskan coast than Metlakatla. Its streets are well laid out and flanked by good plank side-walks. The Indians live in good substantial houses, and the village boasts a good sawmill, a first-class salmon cannery which turns out from 7000 to 10,000 cases a year, a newspaper and a photographer. There are also a number of expert wood carvers and bark weavers, whose work command top prices in the east. There is a large school house, boarding homes for boys and girls, and a general store where one can buy anything he wants, and a very beautiful church.

In 1857 Wm. Duncan was sent from England as a lay missionary of the Church of England in response to Admiral Peovost's report of the terrible condition of native life on the coast. In spite of all attempts to dissuade him he established his mission at Fort Simpson, where lived a large band of the worst Indians in the country. Within three years he had learned the Tsimshian language and had so endeared himself to the natives that 50 of them left their village and with him established another village at some distance.

Here the erstwhile savages cleared the land, erected tidy two-story cottages and their public buildings. They had their own trading schooner, a brass band and fire brigade, and a duly elected council of elders controlled municipal affairs.

This peculiar settlement, this Utopia in the wilderness, prospered amazingly. Mr. Duncan knew his people. There was more to Christianity, he believed, than church-going and hymn-singing. The men were taught carpentering, cabinet-making, shoemaking, coopering, tanning, ropemaking and many other trades. The women were instructed in the arts of housekeeping, sewing and cooking as well as those of weaving shawls, blankets and cloth from the hair of the mountain goats and baskets from the roots and grasses. Between times all were instructed in the religion of Christ.

But Arcadia cannot last forever and in 1881 trouble came. The bishop in charge of the district objected to the simple religious forms used by Mr. Duncan, and after standing the severe criticisms of the bishop and the society turn. He did so and proposed to take his community to the American side. But the church claimed all the property and when seven-eighths of the people followed Mr. Duncan they were allowed to take with them only their personal effects. Everything else was left to the handful who remained with the bishop. The buildings fell into decay, the machinery rusted and when a few years later, the bishop moved away the clearing relapsed into wilderness and the people into savagery.

In the meantime 700 Indians who had followed Mr. Duncan, established themselves on Annette Island and began the hard task of rebuilding their shattered Utopia. Mr. Duncan visited the eastern states and had no trouble in enlisting aid and friends for his Indians. Congress set aside the island as a reservation for their use. In a few years they had built up under a more generous flag a village even more attractive and better than the old.

In this new village no white man save Mr. Duncan is allowed to live. Each man joining the colony is obliged to sign a declaration promising to observe the sabbath, to obey the laws and reverence the flag of the United States, to attend to the education of their children and obey the rules of the village council, to abstain from intoxicating liquors, gambling and heathen rites.

And so in this new Utopia the Metlakatla live in peace and happiness. They work and possess that happiness that can only come from habits of industry.

ENJOYABLE RECITAL.

Hebron, O., Aug. 23.—The classical recital given by the pupils of Miss Helen Martin at her home five miles southwest of here, on her seventeenth birthday anniversary, was a very enjoyable affair. A splendid program consisting of piano and voice solos and duets, which did credit to both pupils and teacher, was finished with refreshments and a social hour, much enjoyed by all. There were present, beside the pupils' families, the Misses Peters of Hebron, the Mrs. J. Ward of Columbus, Mr. E. E. Jones of Mt. Vernon, Mr. Cecil Fanning and Mr. Frank Murphy of Columbus. Mr. Murphy added much to the interest of the program by playing several piano solos.

JUMPED IN

And Grabbed the Lines, Bringing the Runaway Ponies to a Stop on East Side.

The catch of a pair of runaway ponies by James Fitzsimmons on the east side of the public square yesterday afternoon was witnessed by many people.

Frightened by a passing train near the Consumers' Driving plant on First street, the ponies, owned by James Welch started on a dead run down Locust street. On reaching the corner of Second they turned and wildly dashed down the street toward the square. Just as the team was approaching the Ward's hotel Mr. Fitzsimmons, grabbed the back of the rig and with one bound leaped into the vehicle and shortly brought the team to a standstill.

By this time a large crowd had collected and all expressed their admiration for the daring catch. The team was subsequently turned over to its owner who also complimented Mr. Fitzsimmons for his pluck and thanked him for saving the rig.

BARBER SHAVES IN TWENTY SECONDS

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Aug. 29.—A remarkable exhibition of tonsorial skill was witnessed by a number of Lawrenceburg citizens at the barber shop of Charles W. Dawson, when Mr. Dawson lathered and shaved Joseph Merriam in exactly 20 second, a record which he challenges the profession to equal or surpass.

Mr. Dawson gave an exhibition of his skill last week with Mr. Merriam in the chair, on which occasion he made a record of 22 seconds. The last exhibition was given more to establish his claim as a champion barber than to lower his previous record. The doubts of skeptics among the local profession and local newspaper men who derided Dawson's claim are now settled, a fact which is attested by the lightened purses of some of those who gave odds that the feat of lathering and shaving a man in 22 seconds or less could not be accomplished.

Mr. Dawson has been in the business nearly 13 years during which time he has made a study of rapid methods. He challenges members of the profession everywhere.

THE PINKHAM CURES

ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION AMONG THINKING WOMEN.

Mrs. Frances Stafford, of 243 E. 114th St., N.Y. City, adds her testimony to the hundreds of thousands on Mrs. Pinkham's files.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies were first introduced skeptics all over the country frowned upon their curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by the new discovery has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands, doubts and skepticisms have been swept away as by a mighty flood, until to-day the great good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her other medicines are doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, physicians and thinking people.

Merit alone could win such fame; wise, therefore, is the woman who for a cure relies upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

TREATY

IS CONSIDERED DEAD BUT THE CANAL

May be Started Nevertheless Even Should War Result—The New Demands of Panama.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 29.—Public sentiment may not be called upon to determine whether the United States will go to war with a sister republic over the right to complete the Panama canal. A step which may lead to war with the United States of Colombia is one of the contingencies discussed by representatives of the Administration in seeking to solve some way out of the difficulty arising through the failure of the Colombian Congress to ratify the Panama canal treaty without amendments.

The canal question was the chief reason why Secretary of State Hay came to see the President. As the matter may be considered at the extra session of Congress, Mr. Hay's visit was arranged several days ago, while it yet seemed impossible for the United States to become involved even indirectly in the affairs of Turkey and her provinces.

The President and Secretary Hay both regard the treaty as probably dead. They take little interest in the dispatches from Minister Beaupre at Bogota, which purport to detail efforts which are being made by the Colombians to "save the treaty" by amending it.

The United States has long ago informed the little republic that if any amendments were made to the treaty they would not be acceptable to this government. It is, therefore, impossible for this government to recede from its previous statement, soberly made, or listen to the talk of negotiating a new treaty which would give Colombia greater advantages and an annuity of $500,000 instead of $250,000, which some of the Colombians demand. This demand is termed blackmail.

The talk of the President and Secretary Hay was for the purpose of mapping out a plan which shall be pursued, in view of the admitted failure of the treaty. There are three alternatives for the administration to pursue, and none will be taken until after full consideration with leaders in Congress.

The first is to ignore Colombia, proceed to construct the canal under the treaty with New Grenada of 1846, fight Colombia if she objects and create the independent government of Panama out of the present State of Panama. This would give the United States what would be expected to be a short and inexpensive war, but would insure a permanent settlement of the question of the sovereignty of a canal zone across the isthmus of Panama.

The second alternative is that the President shall act in accordance with the provisions of the Spooner law, and, having failed to make a treaty of a satisfactory kind with Colombia, turn to the Nicaragua route, and build the canal via Greytown, Lake Nicaragua and Brito. The third course is to delay this great work until something transpires to make Colombia see light and then resume negotiations for another treaty. This course might be followed if the treaty came back without many important amendments.

The first and third courses would imply that notwithstanding the report of the Isthmian Canal Commission the administration is convinced that Panama is the only route for a canal.

It would doubtless be a surprise to the public that a course which is sure to involve us in war with a South American Republic is one of the methods of procedure being soberly contemplated by the United States. There is little doubt that if we began to dig the canal under the terms of the treaty of 1846 that Colombia would declare war. It is admitted that such a war would go far to destroy the good feeling entertained for us by most of the Spanish-American Republics, though it might be expected that the Republics of Ecuador, Peru and Chile, which from their geographical situation would be greatly benefited by the canal, would sympathize with us. It is understood that before any policy is announced there will be numerous consultations.

War on Porpoises.
Ships of the French navy are to go gunning for porpoises not only because they are expected to furnish difficult targets, but because they are very destructive to fish. Those interesting creatures feed on fish, which their teeth, from forty to fifty in each jaw, are admirably adapted to catch, and schools of them will pursue the shoals of herring, mackerel, pilchards and other fish into bays and estuaries. They sometimes even ascend rivers apparently in pursuit of salmon as far as the water is brackish. Though the skin, the oil and the flesh of the porpoise are all useful, its pursuit for commercial purposes is not sufficiently keen to keep the numbers down. So they are to be attacked by the French war ships, and, considering the rapidity of their movements and their sudden appearances and disappearances, they should provide excellent practice in sharpshooting.

Iced Tea and Soda Water.
To those who revel in the multifarious summer drink the recent statement of Dr. Wiley, chemist for the United States department of agriculture, that "iced tea is suicidal and the devil lurks in the soda fountain" comes like a bomb. The doctor goes on to explain that the extreme cold contracts the pores and congests the coating of the stomach. But, despite this authority's ample dissertations on the evils of "refrigerating the stomach while the thermometer stands well on to 100 in the shade," it is doubtful if the run on fountains will be perceptibly decreased thereby. The doctor urges that more fruits and cereals and less meat in the summer bill of fare would so reduce the natural temperature that moderately cold water would answer all requirements of the system and by degrees of the now perverted appetite.

Weird Story From Burma.
A story comes from Burma of a six-year-old Burmese boy in the Pazu district who is believed by the simple villagers around him to be the reincarnation of the late Mr. A. H. Tucker, district superintendent of police, who was killed by Dacoits in 1894. The child has been taken to various places where Mr. Tucker was stationed, and the Burmese declare that he remembers all the incidents of his previous existence. At the place of the murder he trembled and gave particulars of the deed, they say, and nothing will persuade them that the spirit of the late Mr. Tucker has not returned to earth in the shape of the boy. Such reincarnation is generally believed in Burma, and numerous alleged examples of it are on record. The reincarnated ones are called "winzas."

HAS A SHOOTING AFFAIR OF ITS OWN.

Farmer Geo. W. Miller Fatally Wounded by Jersey Sims Who Has Not Been Located Yet.

Marion, O., Aug. 29—A shooting affair occurred at Decliff, west of here, in which Jerry Sims shot and fatally wounded George W. Miller, a wealthy farmer.

It appears that an ill feeling had existed between the two men for some time and when some one informed Sims that Miller had committed an offense against him, Sims procured a revolver and went in search of his enemy.

Miller was standing in Eden's store at Decliff, when Sims rushed in and after a few hot words with his neighbor, pulled the gun and fired two bullets into Miller's left side. The wounded man sank to the floor and bystanders went to his assistance, forgetting to capture Sims.

When the excitement had abated and the people looked for Sims, he had escaped. Officers started in pursuit, following a trail in the direction of the city, but Sims had not been located. Miller is a widower and has a family of grown children. There is no hope for his recovery, both shots having passed through his body.

Mr. Richard Price, of the Welsh Hills, who has been staying with his son in Chicago for some time, has returned to Licking county.

The vehicles collided and the negroes demanded $10 from the white men, which was refused. Thomas then shot Daily through the heart, killing him instantly. Both negroes are in jail and Thomas has confessed the killing.

HAUNTED

By Thoughts of the Cell, Fugitive Convict Who Married and Prospered Unburdened Himself.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 29—A few minutes before he was confronted for identification by Sergeant Dodd, of the Mississippi penitentiary, Felix Daley, alias C. F. Kelley, a well known contractor, who was arrested here Wednesday on the charge of being a fugitive from the Mississippi prison, made a full confession. He said that on December 31, 1879, he shot a man named Wm. Smith in a bar room brawl at Moss Point, Miss., and was afterward sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for assault with intent to murder.

On January 3, 1883 after having served a little over a year and a half, Daley escaped. He made his way through the country on foot, working at odd jobs and finally reached Cottondale, Ala. There he assumed the name of Kelley, and later married. He now has two sons almost grown, and none of his family has ever known before that he was an escaped convict. He has resided in Birmingham a long time and was highly respected. He says the thought of being an escaped convict has made him a physical wreck, having driven him to drink so that he has twice been sent to an insane asylum.

Not long ago Daley determined to take a friend into his confidence as he was so haunted by the hallucination of guards pursuing him that he felt impelled to unburden his mind. He believes that this confidence was betrayed and his arrest brought about. Daley was taken back to the Mississippi penitentiary yesterday.
